

What to Pack for your Okemo Vacation

Compliments of Diane Mueller, co-owner of Okemo Mountain

Diane Mueller used to do these lists for her kids when they were old enough to pack for themselves. Diane says, "It taught them responsibility, made my life easier and they only forgot to pack something once after they were old enough for me not to check everything they laid out."

Everyday wear:

- Underwear
- Socks
- Stockings
- Outfits for dinner
- Shoes or boots for dinner
- Blue jeans
- Sweatshirt
- Sweater
- Pants
- Sneakers
- Bathing suit
- Pajamas
- Toilet articles
- Clothes for working out

For the slopes:

- Skis
  - Boots
  - Poles
  - Snowboard
  - Hat
  - Goggles
  - Sunglasses
  - Neckgator
  - Long underwear
  - Socks
  - Turtlenecks
  - Gloves or mittens
  - Glove liners
  - Jacket and pants or one piece suit
  - Wax and ski tools
- (or take your equipment to the Repair Shop)

Miscellaneous:

- Camera & film
- Books, games, CD's, tapes
- Snowshoes
- Ice Skates

Day Care Only:

- Change of clothes
- Bottle
- Favorite Blanket or Toy
- Diapers/Wipes
- Pacifier

Please label all your children's belongings.

Things you might have to take care of before leaving for your trip to Okemo:

- Take out garbage
- Water plants
- Turn down the heat
- Lock the door behind you and head to Okemo!
- Take the pets to be boarded
- Clean out refrigerator
- Turn off the lights

Have a great time on the slopes!