WELCOME TO SIENA

Siena’s claim to fame is its Charm of the Palio—a world renowned horse race. Siena is built across a range of small hills, a unique geographic position that contributes to its serenity and beauty. The Tuscan landscape is that of olive groves, vineyards and rounded mossy mountains. From this picturesque setting emerges a cuisine that manages to be fresh, rustic and elegant at the same time. Tuscan heritage is to be pleasant, warm and inviting while at the same time not accepting any compromises on food or wine.

Okemo is excited to welcome Chef Mark Wiegand, who studied the fine art of Italian Cuisine in Florence, Italy. Chef Mark mentored under world-renowned Chef Andrea Trapiani at Ganzos in Florence. He was chosen by Chef Trapiani to assist with preparing dinners at the James Beard House in New York City. Chef Mark embraces the Tuscan heritage and his passion for the cuisine is evident in the new menu he has created. By sourcing local products through partnerships with local farmers and artisans, he creates a cuisine befitting a traditional Tuscan Trattoria.

We are Siena, a touch of Tuscany right here at Jackson Gore. We invite you to experience the authenticity of Italian dining.
